Meeting with representatives of AGH University of Science and Technology in Kraków

AGH

On 1 March 2022, Internal Security Agency officers held a meeting with the Management Staff and Rector's Representative for Scientific Circles of the Stanisław Staszic AGH University of Science and Technology in Kraków.

The meeting was one of the subsequent initiatives taken between Internal Security Agency and AGH University as part of the research and development cooperation agreement signed between the institutions in 2020. The subject of the talks was to develop organisational solutions in order to promote at the University the subject of the role of Internal Security Agency in the system of internal security of Poland and issues related to anti-terrorist prevention. In this context, an important element is the need to implement issues related to proper principles of conduct in the event of an incident of a terrorist nature into the curriculum of AGH students. During the meeting a number of questions were answered which arose both in the context of Internal Security Agency activities and threats related to terrorism on the territory of Poland.
