The event, organised by the Spanish Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the United Nations, took place in Malaga and focused on Human Rights, Civil Society and Counter-Terrorism.

The meeting brought together representatives of member states of the United Nations Office of Counter-Terrorism Global Coordination Compact entities, international and regional organisations, human rights and civil society organisations, experts and other stakeholders.

The proceedings of the meeting were divided into a conference and a ministerial session, during which statements were made by the foreign ministers of the Member States and the ministers responsible for combating terrorism.
