On 23 September 2024, an expert from the Anti-Terrorist Centre of the Internal Security Agency (ABW) began a series of training courses on counter-intelligence prevention dedicated to the judges of the Supreme Administrative Court.

The lectures discussed issues related to the modus operandi of state and non-state actors, including the risk of espionage and sabotage offences. The main topics included issues concerning ongoing information gathering operations and information attack mechanisms. The topics of the meeting also included suggestions for recommended behaviour in the event of adverse events.

The training was the first of its kind at this facility as part of a planned series of training sessions conducted by CAT ABW, which foster awareness of threats.
