Meeting with CEPOL - Prague (Czech Republic)

On 24 - 27 September 2018 in Prague (Czech Republic) a meeting about radicalization in prisons took place. The meeting was organized by CEPOL (European Union Agency for Law Enforcement Training).

Participants of the training, in addition to obtaining comprehensive knowledge about current trends in profiling of people, risk indicators used in detecting radicalization and the role of probation services in the field of prevention, participants took part in a study visit to Pankrac penitentiary in Prague, where in addition to the high-security units, they visited a museum exhibition.
